GOSSIP-OF THE RACETRACK.

SARATOGA OPENS WITH A RECORD BREAKING CROWD.

No Plunging Bets, but Plenty of Business for 200 Bookmakers - Best Steeplechase of the Year Over Improved Course-Narrow Escape for Miller.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 6.—The Saratoga Racing Association to-day scored an opening success for its meeting that more than same up to expectations, and this with hopes based high, for the reason that all the meet-ings on the metropolitan circuit this year have been, to quote those in charge, "record breakers.

Last week it was feared here that there might be some disappointments ahead, for the town had a vacant air that did not look promising. Saturday, with the arrival of the advance guard, things took on a brighter hue, and yesterday, with the coming of the specials from New York and other points, there came a very busy aspect, but it was only to-day that the crowds grew to proportions that assured an attendance that would eclipse all that has gone before, and that is what

When the post call sounded for the first race this afternoon the clubhouse, the grand stand, the betting domains and the field enclosure, too, were packed to the point where comfort was almost out of the question. It was a Saratoga at its best, with every indication that the éclat will go on to the end. The efforts made here to reestab-lish racing were luckily in the right hands, and now will come the rewards.

Not alone are the regulars appreciative.

but from all parts of the land have gathered friends of racing and lovers of the City of Springs, and their loyalty will keep them enthused to the end. It will be a royal tribute to the popularity of the sport and an object lesson for those seeking to decry it. As to estimating the attend once all sorts of figures were talked of; but those in a position to know, in the absence of an official count did not esitate to say that all previous records at the turnstiles had been far exceeded. As for the betting, it was very heavy; but there was a marked absence of plunging, which has been in evidence here in other years. This is as it should be and every effort will be made to avoid any breaking effort will be made to avoid any breaking loose on the part of the sensational players. On—the line to-day in the grand stand enclosure 154 layers were doing business, and for the field patrons 54 were quoting prices. This is a new mark, away above anything ever recorded here, and yet all reported a generous patronage; but it was so well divided that there was no chance for any of the wild stories that were so common in the days of the "big store," and other bulky bookmaking

The best race of the day was the Saratoga Steeplechase, to which the association added the very liberal sum of $5,000. The programme called for eleven starters and to this list was added Desert Chief. The horse was brought over from England last spring with owners of cross-country performers. fell in his first effort at Belmont Park, and to-day, while he managed to flatter his backers for a time, ran all over the course and finally came to grief. It may be that later on he will make good for his owner, Grant Hugh Brown, but before he does he will be compelled to mend his ways. He is a wonderfully fast horse, but is too uncertain in his present condition to warrant anything like high expectations. The winner of the stake was Herculoid, from the stable of C. Pfizer. He was well backed by Jesse Lewisohn, Charley Cash and others who have a pretty good line on the jumpers.

Hylas, who had a host of followers, was outrun all the way; in fact, Ray was busy on him long before the journey was half over. A longer route will suit this horse better. This race was one of the best of the cross country affairs this year or in several years and after the finish there was general praise for the new course; that is to say, the reconstruction of the jumps. They are now all banks topped with brush with light round poles at the base and top as guides. This does away with the old complaints of flying timbers, as the poor jumpers hit the fences, and will certainly tend to reduce materially the number of accidents. The cross country delegation here is greater than it has been in years, and anything that can be done to improve this grade of the sport will be done.

Dandelion's victory in the Saratoga Handi-mate Tangle, who finished second, could have beaten him off. Some little time before the race was called the announcement was made officially that Mr. Hitchcock declared to win with Dandelion, and his programme any of the other starters, Tangle would have been there with an argument that would have been hard to dispose of. John Mad-den, who trains the pair for Mr. Hitchock, said later in the afternoon that he had been offered $10,000 for Tangle, and that it had been refused. This is not surprising, for this filly is well engaged, and with the handicap division weaker than it has been in years, it will be an easy matter for this daughter of Meddler and Handspun to earn in prizes twice the sum offered for her to-day.

Just after the barrier was sprung for the start in the fifth race Banner was interfered with and Miller, who was riding, got what in an instant, none the worse for his fall. ing event his admirers tendered him a round his hold is on the fancy of the public.

The stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association held a meeting in the afternoon and announced that in the future the entries of the horses racing in the name of the Algonquin Stable would be refused. No reasons were given for the ruling, but it is understood that it is a case of explaining ownership. Tom Cogan ran and won in the name of this stable at Brighton on Saturday.

Jack Demund had a trial this morning for the Saratoga Special, in which he will carry the Rainey colors. He covered & quarter in 0:22 2-5, five furlongs in 0:59 2-5 and six furlongs in 1:13. He was going com-paratively easy at the end and carried a boy that looked to weigh about 110 pounds.

Charley Walker, one of the first and best of the railbirds, was stricken with appendicitis at the track this afternoon and was hurriedly removed to one of the local hospitals. Walker in the old days of Gutten-burg and Clifton owned a formidable stable, Now or Never, who won a number of impor-tant races on the big tracks, being one of the string that carried his colors. When he gave up his stable he gave his entire attention to warmups and so keen a judge did he become that he has for years been able to pick winners enough to bring him a comfortable income.

Among those at the track this afternoon were August Belmont and his son, August; Stephen Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford, John H. Bradford, Harry S. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, F. R. Hitchcock, H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slocum, E. C. Potter, E. W. Jewett, Walter P. Bliss, Mrs. Cornelius Fellowes, Mrs. Henry P. Hyde, F. His condition earns for his trainer, Enoch Wishard, a lot of credit, and if the horse can hold his present form its will take the best of the sprinters to best him.

DANDELION'S EASY VICTORY. Beats Tangle, a Stable Mate, in Saratogs Handlesp.

SARATOGA, Aug. 6.—The racing season opened here to-day in the presence of a brilliant gathering of turf followers. Fully 10,000 persons crowded the stands to see an excellent card run off, the feature of which excellent card run off, the feature of which was the $10,000 Saratoga Handicap, one mile and a quarter. This event was a signal triumph for F. R. Hitchcock's Dandellon and Tangle who ran first and second, repectively, with R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Callavant, an added starter, third, Dandellon and Tangle, the latter a full sister to H. P. Whitney's Tanya, were coupled in the betting at 18 to 5, having receded from 2 to 1. E. W. Jewett's Bedouin, meanwhile, was a strong favorite at twos with John A. Drake's Wes at Eight horses were sent away to an excellent Eight horses were sent away to an excellent start by Mars Cassidy, Sewell, breaking Dandelion off in front, with Tangle, Miller up, in close attendance. Then Tangle took the lead until Dandelion was ready to assume command, the others being unable to show any dangerous qualities. Callavant was third nearly all the way with John Sandford's Ravena well up until the stretch was reached. Meanwhile Bedouin, with Shaw in the saddle. was unable to show anything like the form displayed in previous races and was always in the ruck. As Dandelion rushed down to the wire a safe margin in front of Tangle, the crowd broke into ent husiastic cheers. At the end Dandellon was an easy winner by less than a length, with Tangle three lengths in front of Gallavant. The latter stood a drive to keep third money from Red Leaf, 40 to 1, another added starter. The others were close up, all heads apart. It was one of the best races of the year and Mr. Hitchcock was warmly congratulated by his many friends. The race was run in 2-04 2-5.

C. Přizer's Herculoid, a good thing, backed from 7 down to 5, was victorious in the rich Saratoga Steeplechase, run over the short course. With Finnegan up he made all the running and won well in hand by three lengths in 4:19. Goldfieur, 15 to 1, held the others safe at all stages and took the place from Kassil, 8 to 1.

In the largest field of the day Newton Bennington's Edua Jackson, who went up in the betting to 6, set a fast pace in the opening event, at six furlongs, winning in a drive by a head from J. M. Johnson's Rush, backed from 10 down to 6.

John A. Drake's Runnels, a patched up cripple, ran a fast mile in the fifth race. He went up in the speculation, from 4 to 5 to 7 to 5, but he proved the class and won in a sharp drive, the time being 1:39 2-5.

H. P. Whitney's Killieorankie, 16 to 5, made nearly all the running in the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, and won by half a length in 1508.

Next to the Queen was the yawl Sybarita. She had outsailed the Virilant and won with plenty to spare, although she finished only a little ahead of the old cup defender that de-feated the Valkyrie in 1903. The Yankee lost her topmast when Point Judith, just after she set her spinnaker. At the time she was making a fine race with the Rainbow and bid fair to have made it three straight when the topmast snapped and the big light sails fell in a smother on the deck.

Mr. Maxwell crossed the line with his disabled yacht and gave the Rainbow a record. As soon as the Yankee got into the harbor she was towed to Herreshoffs at Bristol to have for the Astor cup races to-morrow.

as the yachts were started. The fleet had been kept in the harbor at New London by fog and it was noon when the committee sent the yachts away: then the wind died out, and in the worst kind of going they had to beat to Race Rock. On this leg they got separated, and when the wind freshened to a nice sailing breeze some of the yachts had quite a big lead.

The Elmina, Rainbow, Weetamoe and Altair were among the favored ones. It was a broad reach to Point Judith and then a run to the finish. The special prizes for the day were cups given by Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt. The Muriel, owned by Charles Smithers, won that for the first division of chooners and the Venona won the oup for the schooners. The Humma and Heola won the two sloop cups. The results of these the schooners. The Humma and Hools won the two sloop cups. The results of these races furnished arguments for those who think the allowances are too large, as the smaller yachts won each cup, although they finished far behind the larger yachts.

The Weetamoe, cleverly sailed by H. F. Lippitt, won in her class and the Effort was second F. H. Smith handled the Effort and at the start in the light air fouled the Weetamoe. Mr. Smith sailed her to windward in the light airs, which was the hardest part of the race, and at Race Rock the Effort was last in her class.

The Astor cups will be sailed for to-morrow. There are four schooners and twenty sloops and yawls entered in the two races and the start will be made at 10 o'clock from Brenton's Reef lightship.

A thick fog shut in early this morning and when the yachtsmen turned out little or nothing could be seen of the vessels in the fleet. All were screened by a thick, damp pail of white mist that made every one uncomfortable and unhappy. Occasionally a little puff of air would lift this pail for a few minutes and then it would shut down thick again. There was a continual tooting of whistles. Steamers under way tooted to signal their positions, the warships were tooting signals to each other and outside the sirens on the lighthouses and the light vessels were tooting to warn mariners.

The fog was so thick at 8:30 o'clock that no signal was made from the flagship, and it was made. The yachts by that time had their sails set and were soon under way to the starting line. Newport, R. I., Aug. 6.—Smothered in canvas and with a big white bone in her teeth, Frederick F. Brewster's yacht Elmina led the racing fiest of the New York Yacht Club into port this afternoon. Just i minute and seconds astern and rapidly overhauling her was J. Rogers Maxwell's new schooner Queen.

The Queen had sailed a hard race. At Race Rock she was two minutes astern of the Elmina. It was a reach from there to Point Judith whistling buoy, and at that point the Queen was beaten more than five minutes; but, with spinnakers set and her big balloon jib drawing, she rapidly overhauled the Elmina, and if there had been with sings the spinnakers are the grain was more removed to the deck. down in a smother of the deck. She was out of the race.

With all kites drawing the yachts raced up toward the finishing line. At 3:15, the wind going a point further west, spinnakers were taken in, become sybed over and the spinnakers set again on the port side. Each man on each racer was gathered at so as to lift the bows of the yachts, as they flew through the water. Forward the mate on each stood as a lookout and watching the sails. Each big piece of canvas was trimmed to catch every ounce of the wind, and the Queen slowly but surely passed the yawis and then went on after the Emino. It was a hot chase and the result was in doubt until the finish.

The Elmina was the first across the line, but the Queen had closed so much on her that she won the race on her allowance. The Sybarita had passed the Vigilant on the last leg of the course and was the next in, and the old Cup defender Vigilant followed.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 8; ST. LOUIS (A. L.), 6.

St. Louis, Aug. 6.—The New Yorks pulleda to-day's game out of the fire, winning in the ninth. Chesbro and Howell opened for their respective teams, but Happy Jack lasted only one inning, Clarkson taking his place after Rickey had rapped the ball over the fence, georing the fifth run for the Brownies. Happy Harry got his in the sixth and seventh innings, when the New Yorks registered four runs of hits and miscues. In the last half of the sixth Rickey again drove out a homer. Yeager opened the eighth for the visitors and caught a pitched ball in the ribs, where-upon Capt. Wallace chased Howell to the bench, Jacobson taking his place. Delehanty's rap to right placed Yeager on third and he scored on Thomas's fly to centre. When the night opened the score stood to 5 in favor of the home team. Elberfeld drove to centre, Chase followed with a rap to right and Conroy laid the ball down in front of the box. In an endeavor to make a double play Jacobson threw wild to second, Elberfeld trotting home and Hal and Wid taking second and third respectively, from whence they accored on La Porte's rap to right. Griffith was chased from the field by O'Loughlin. There was a report at the park that Griffith was negotiating for Pitcher Glade, MoAleer demanding Yeager and Delehanty or Hoffman in exchange, or a big bunch of money. Of course Clark and McAleer demy the story, but it is generally credited here. The score:
